

GOT A CONCERN? WADDLE AND TELL!

Hi! I'm Waddles, your friendly penguin buddy at O'Brien Icehouse.
I'm here to remind you that it's okay to speak up if you're worried about your child.

You should speak up if:

Your child has been hurt, bullied, or threatened.
Your child has been made to feel unsafe or uncomfortable.
You notice behaviour that doesn't feel right.
Your child tells you about something that worries or upsets them.
You're worried about another child's safety or wellbeing.

You know your child best. If something doesn't feel right, trust your instincts and scan the QR code to let us know.

You don't have to deal with it on your own.
